

A FINE WW1 PHOTOGRAPH OF BRITISH AND AMERICAN PILOTS PRISONERS OF WAR

This particularly fine photograph taken of eight officers in a German prisoner of war camp, shows a variety of uniforms. Four officers are clearly Royal Flying Corps or Royal Air Force (probably a mixture of both), one is wearing a Royal Naval Air Service uniform, two are American aviators, one military, the other naval and a fifth British officer has no insignia to indicate aviation service but its likely he is an attached observer.

Photograph in postcard format, size approximately 9 x 14cm
