

WW1 1918 RAF OFFICERS LEFT FACING TUNIC CUFF EAGLES X 3

1) Example retaining backing plates, eagle and crown attached by screw nuts

2) Example of just the eagle and crown, these having loops for split pin attachment. These are an unusual type that was attached to a thin metal oval disc. See Pg 121 of Flight Badges of the Allied Nations 1914-18 by Pandis for another example with the plate

3) Example just the eagle, screws to reverse which are fixed with solder. Possibly converted for use on cap badge

All three left facing eagles.
